THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN

A WEEKLY JOURNAL
OF
LOCAL NEWS AND HOME READING.

Office: Over the Post Office.

Office Hours: From 7:45 to 9 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Special Notice.

The office of the CITIZEN is open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, from 7:45 to 9 o'clock. Contributions should be sent to the office not later than Thursday evening.

The author's name must accompany all communications or contributions to the CITIZEN (which will be published or not as desired). All others will be rejected.

ABOUT TOWN.

—Mr. David Decker and wife have gone to Canada for a couple of weeks.

—On Tuesday evening Mr. George Kenyon will lecture on Siberia at the Westminister Chapel.

—Hendricks Bros., Copper Mill, which was closed for a few days in order to make repairs, is again running full head.

—Joseph Schaup and Constable Benjamin Baldwin have been appointed by Sheriff Brown, the former as a deputy and the latter as court attendant.

—Mr. R. N. Dodd's Hotel will be a valuable addition to Bloomfield and a very tasty looking building when completed, if we may judge by its present appearance.

—A letter of thanks to the "Clover Society" from Mrs. R. N. Dodd, President of the Bloomfield Auxiliary of the Newark Orphan Asylum, is crowded out this week.

—Rev. D. R. Lowrie will preach in the Park M. E. Church Sabbath evening. Subject: "The beauty and power of a mother's love." A praise service will be held before the sermon.

—Our citizens are cautioned to use every precaution by avoiding unnecessary exposure in visiting or at friends, also by using disinfectants, against the spread of contagious diseases.

—Thieves broke into the house of Mr. Vernon Yerrance, of Brookdale, on Tuesday evening carrying away about $400 in money belonging to a young man who is residing with him.

—The stone road or Broad Street is looking nicely, and will prove after the close of the winter that it is the most economical of all the roads made in Bloomfield in the last ten years.

—In speaking of the Baptist entertainments last week we used the term "play." It was merely a poem illustrated by tableaux and will be repeated on Monday evening in Library Hall, when no doubt the hall will be filled.

—The meetings of the Sunday School Societies, Normal Class will be held during December in the Baptist Church; Mr. Brodhead is always interesting and teachers are allowed nothing to prevent them from attending. Friday evenings, 7:45.

—The Mutual Base Ball Club, of Belleville, gave a ball at Heller's Hall last night. It was a grand success. The collection was very fine. Dancing was kept up until a very late hour. All the beaux of Belleville were there, as was a number from Bloomfield.

—A necessary Sunday will be observed at the Methodist Church to-morrow. A love-feast will be held, followed by Dr. Brice, Presiding Elder. Afternoon, at half past two, the Sunday School will have special exercises on missions. In the evening, Rev. Dr. Butler will preach on missions.

—Tickets for Mr. Burdette's lecture for benefit of Essex H. & L. Co. 1, are readily, over 200 having been sold. Great credit is due to "Essex" for the people an entertainment of this order, and we hope they will be equally supported that they will give us of equally as good a character.

—Further particulars have been learned regarding the death of Michael McGlynn by a friend at Memphis, Tenn. Edward Perry, furnished the information, has been asked to several times and enquiry has been made of the Chief of Police at Memphis. No reply has as yet been received from the friends. This would seem to be reason to doubt the first report.

—The Rev. Charles E. Knox, D.D., will deliver a series of lectures recently given at the Presbyterian Chapel in New York. They will vary somewhat from previous lectures in that Montclair has been substituted for that of Bloomfield. The course will commence next Monday evening.

—Mrs. Charles Rockliffe died suddenly Monday evening, and was buried on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Lowrie officiated.

Mrs. Rockliffe leaves a large family of children. Thos. Oakes & Co.'s mill, where Mr. Rockliffe is employed, was closed on Tuesday afternoon to give the employees an opportunity to extend their sympathies to their fellow-workman.

—The Township Committee met Wednesday evening, passed a few bills and discussed at length numerous matters of improvement in the town. The Road Committee reported that they were not entirely satisfied with the new stone road, and recommended that no more money be paid the contractor until it was completed. The Gas Committee reported that three lamps had been erected in Spruce street, as requested at the last meeting. The Clerk was again ordered to notify the agent of the mill property on Glenwood avenue to remove the barbed wire fence. The matter of cutting the sidewalk to grade on Broad street was discussed, and the committee requested to confer with the property owners and see on what terms they will agree to have the work done.

Mabee and English.

Messrs. Mabce and English reappeared in Bloomfield on Monday evening at Dodd's Hall. The room was completely filled long before the time of opening the meeting, and many more were turned away. Mr. Mabce opened the meeting with singing, reading the scripture, and prayer. His address described the work accomplished at Passaic and Montclair, together with incidents happening at other places. He was followed by Mr. English, who addressed the meeting with his usual wit and humor mingled with earnestness. The pledges were placed on the table and a few signers were obtained. On the following evening the meeting was held at the Baptist Church, which was also too small to hold those who desired to attend. On Wednesday evening Library Hall was secured and a very interesting meeting held. The Temperance work has received a new impetus and will now be pushed with earnestness by the Club.

A Mystery Cleared Up.

The body of Richard Clark, of Montclair, late freight agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company, who disappeared from that place so mysteriously two months ago, was found at South Hartford, N. Y., on Monday afternoon in a barn. Some papers were found in the pockets showing Mr. Clark to be a member of the Masonic Lodge at Phillipsburg. The Coroner notified his lodge by telegraph and word was also sent to Montclair.

South Hartford is fourteen miles from Fort Edward, which is fifty miles above Albany. A committee from the Phillipsburg lodge started for Fort Edward and returned on Wednesday morning with the remains, which were buried with Masonic honors. The general opinion is that Mr. Clark was drugged and has been traveling from the day he left his home. He had no money with him and left without any cause. His only relatives live in England and are unknown to any of his friends here.

The Lehlbach Reception.

The reception and collation given on Monday night, November 24th, at Dodd's Hall, by Hon. Mr. Lehlbach (Congressman-elect from this district), to the Lehlbach Engineer Corps, found an occasion unique in character and which was in every way interesting and successful. After the collation, speaking was the order of the evening. Captain Theodore Cadmus presided. Mr. Lehlbach was first called upon, and expressed his gratitude for the support he had received in Bloomfield, the majority here given to him deciding the election in his favor. He declared that he could not have chosen a better company of men to bear his name during a political campaign than the Lehlbach Engineer Corps of Bloomfield. He had been met by a combination of forces in the late election, but had succeeded through the efforts of Bloomfield friends. He desired it to be understood that he would seek to represent faithfully the interests of his district in Congress. He promised that if any of the corps should visit Washington, he would show them about the city and entertain them.

John Sanderson, one of the officers of the Engineer Corps and now President of the Inevitable Bloomfield Corps, was the next speaker. He said we had carried two names in the late campaign, Blaine and Lehlbach. We had lost the one, but gained the other. Remarks were made by other gentlemen: Messrs. Folsom, Reford, Moore, Bovee, Handy, Cook, Restin and Chaplain Simons. Mr. Folsom thought that Republicans had no reason to be disheartened by the late election. The party was still compact and ready for work. Mr. Reford spoke words of encouragement. Mr. Moore referred to his presence in Chicago when Abraham Lincoln was nominated for the Presidency, and he seconded the nomination made by Chaplain Simons of the next Republican candidate for the Presidency. He thought Mr. Blaine and the Republican party the liveliest corpses imaginable. Mr. Bovee spoke of the attitude of Mr. Beecher in the campaign. Mr. Handy gave some sensible advice to those who have joined the new corps. Mr. Restin remarked of this, that it was unconquerable and unconquerable. Mr. Cook gave a very earnest address, full of bright, good things. A recitation was rendered by one of the members of the corps. Mr. Lehlbach spoke again at the close of the entertainment, telling of the manner of his nomination, which had come through his fidelity in attending primaries and in opposing machine politics. He said that he had not spent one dollar to buy a vote, and had refused to patronize the saloons and to furnish liquor to influence voters. Mr. Lehlbach by his words increased the respect all expressed towards him as a solid, sensible man, who would faithfully meet the trust committed to him as a representative in Congress.

The words spoken by all the speakers deserve a full report, and breathed a hopeful and determined spirit. As one of the speakers remarked, it is an anomaly that a defeated party should be so compact, and begin at once to organize for victory in the next campaign. The campaign of 1888 has been entered, upon in Bloomfield under favorable auspices.

Meeting of School Trustees.

The School Board held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening. On account of the dilatory manner in which Mr. C. M. Lockwood, builder, does his work upon the Centre Primary School, the District Clerk was directed to notify him that the Trustees demand that within three days he put on men, and provide materials to complete the work immediately, according to the agreement.

The Superintendent of the schools presented his report as follows: The statistical reports for the month ending Nov. 21 give a total enrollment of 821, with a daily attendance of 714; or 87 per cent. The enrollment was distributed as follows: High School, 38; Grammar School, 350; Centre Primary, 183; Berkeley, 165; Brookside, 88.

The work of the month may be reported about the same as for last month. Sickness has interfered somewhat. In most of the classes reviews are just beginning preparatory to the close of the term.

One of the wants of the Centre School is a teacher who is thoroughly proficient in music; who would be able to take general charge of instruction in music. As it now is a lesson is hastily given once a week, and the care of instruction is thrown entirely upon the teachers, many of whom make no claim to understanding anything about music. In the Primaries the lessons are so simple and elementary that this need is not felt, but in the higher classes it does seem that much better work (of more immediate and practical value) might be had under some such change as has been suggested.

Four years' use has shown that the Greek grammar (Goodwins') in use in the High School, does not answer the requirement of class work as it should. It needs to be supplemented by Hoadley's, and the pupils who enter college are advised then to use this. It seems that the change might be made quite as well here.

Money is being raised in the classes for the library, and can be handed in soon.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mr. G. H. Bosch, of 92 Park place, Newark, whose advertisement of Domestic Fruit Wines appears in this issue, has spared neither time nor money to procure a native fruit wine, of a full rich body and flavor, and of unquestionable purity. His object has been to supply a wine for communion and medicinal purposes, which would be equal to most of the imported wines. In this object he has been successful, and even surpassed many foreign productions. The fruit is pressed at East Orange, and the wines are on sale at Bosch's Tea Store at very reasonable prices.

For a good, fat, tender turkey for your Christmas dinner, go to Hackett & Sons Centre Market. They also have a very fine display of fruits and vegetables, canned goods, and meat of the finest quality.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Bee Hive, Newark. They have as fine a line of holiday goods as any one in the city, at very low prices.

NOTICE.
The firm of Baker & Hubbell, grocers, etc., is dissolved this day by mutual consent. Either partner will sign in liquidation. ABEL BAKER, S. LANDON HUBBELL, Bloomfield, N. J., Dec. 1, 1884.

The business as conducted during the past nine years will be continued by the senior partner, who intends to spare no pains in catering to the wants of the public as to secure a continuance of the patronage of neighbors and friends, which has been so generously bestowed upon the firm in the past. With many thanks to our Heavenly Father for His guiding and sustaining hand, we shall apply all our faculties with energy and fidelity, so far as we may be able, to meet the demands and gratify the wishes of all, rich and poor.

Our prices will at all times conform to the times and with a view of meeting any honorable competition that may arise, and to furnish goods of the best quality as low if not lower than any other fair-dealing house in Newark or New York, always delivered free.

We shall adhere tenaciously to the cash principle as the basis upon which to build an economical and successful business, which principle is equally beneficial to customer and proprietor alike.

We extend a cordial invitation to all to come, see and prove for themselves. Dec. 1, 1884. ABEL BAKER.

The four most prominent things in Township affairs that should engross the attention of the people of Bloomfield during the Winter and in advance of the annual election of Township officers, are:

FIRST—Established grades (permanent).
SECOND—Hard Stone Roads (where the travel is heavy, such Broad and Franklin streets).
THIRD—Sidewalks.
FOURTH—Sewerage.

Now that the Broad Street Improvement is finished and the Reduction in the price of Gas has extended the system, the four matters spoken of above should be thoroughly discussed and understood. Bloomfield in its natural position is entitled to the same condition of Progress and Improvement that East Orange is. Shall we not have it.
